

Senko studio presents:

"HOMEBREW READYMADES"
by Harm van den Dorpel (NL)

Opening the 21st of February 12-15
Open Saturdays 12-15 and Sundays 14-17
The last day the 22d of March 2009

A display of self constructed found objects.

In this show Harm van den Dorpel explores the inherent visual language and aesthetics of digital imagery created and manipulated with existing and self made software. Sometimes it is unclear whether the works are objet trouvé. The artists emphasizes on the inherent qualities of found footage so directly their author becomes almost redundant.

Harm van den Dorpel graduated 2006 at the Gerrit Rietveld Academy Amsterdam, is the founder of Club Internet, lives and works in Amsterdam and on the Internet
